

INTERFAITH SERVICE FESTIVAL

SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 21ST 2025
AT ST. JOHN VIANNEY CHURCH

300 CAPTAIN THOMAS BLVD, WEST HAVEN, CT 06516

We Are All In This Together: We invite you to come volunteer, learn and enjoy fellowship with diverse faith traditions where we will work side by side giving our time in service to worthy community projects.

Volunteer for these Service Projects: (projects on the lawn)

- West Haven beach clean up with Save the Sound
- With hammer and anvil, Transform guns into garden tools: Swords to Plowshares Northeast
- Blessing Bags with Beth-El Center Milford & Columbus House
- Home Construction with Habitat for Humanity GNH (Advance sign up required)
- Advocate for humanizing our prisons and watch a film with Stop Solitary CT
- Discussions with agencies and community members on Refugees and Immigrants
- Painting a 48 foot billboard peace mural with IWagePeace
- Learn how you can help refugees & immigrants with IRIS
- Know your rights. Fight Discrimination with the ACLU Connecticut
- How you can fight food insecurity with Purple Pantry Boxes
-and more!

When: Sunday September 21st 11:45 to 4:15 PM

- Habitat for Humanity takes place off site 9:00-12:00 AM (advance sign up)
- Arrive at 11:45 for free pizza and volunteer for one or more service projects
- Activities, Discussions, displays and more throughout the day

What else:

- All afternoon pizza, water & soda served by the onsite Parlor Pizza Truck
- Key Note Speaker: Dr. Elias Farah, Executive Director of Jerusalem Peacebuilders
- A billboard Peace mural display, interfaith engagement, Blue Steel Drum Line, & fun!

SCAN TO SIGNUP

All that's required to participate is your physical and spiritual presence. Admission is free and open to all ages. All We ask is that you or your group please sign up at www.iwagepeace.org to let us know you're coming - it helps us plan!

Visit
IWagePeace.Org
to learn more